(5) Points to note

a. When paying by international remittance, please assure that the remitter name is the same as the applicant name, and that the amount deposited in the designated account is 9,800 Yen. Further, attach documents verifying this remittance to the application package. Because an application cannot be accepted if the full examination fee is not received due to the deduction of remittance fees, make certain to inform the financial institution that the applicant will bear all remittance fees.

Further, please note that in the event that the bank where the remittance is requested cannot directly transfer funds to the account specified by the University, intermediary financial institutions will require payment of handling fees.

b. Incomplete applications will not be accepted.

Once received, any change in the contents of the application documents will not be accepted. In the case of a change in your address or contact address, you should report this information immediately to Student Recruiting Section of the University of Aizu.

c. Late applications will not be accepted.

d. Once received, the application documents and the application fee will not be returned under any circumstances.

e. Should any false statements be discovered in the application documents, admission may be denied, even if admission has been approved.

f. Applicants with handicaps who may require special considerations to be given for studying at the University must submit an application for consultation (no prescribed form) that describes the items listed below to the Student Affairs Division of the University of Aizu.

- Applicant's name and address (including applicant's contact telephone number)
- The name of the educational institute from which the applicant graduated
- Types and seriousness of disability (those who receive medical treatment must attach a medical certificate.)
- Specific items requiring special considerations for studying at the University
- Special measures that had been taken at the educational institute, etc. from which the applicant graduated
- The applicant's state in daily life

4. Selection Method

Successful applicants shall be selected based on screening of documents submitted.
