Oath Concerning Requirements to Receive the Emergency Student Support Handout

To apply for the Emergency Student Support Handout provided by the Japan Student Services Organization, I have confirmed that I meet application criteria (1) through (6) below (or (1) through (5) and (7) if an international student).

[Note] In principle, you can apply if you fulfill following (1)-(6) ((1)-(5) and (7) for international students), but even if it does not apply to all, handout might be paid according to the situation. Thus, students who are in financial trouble due to COVID-19 can apply.

Requirement Checklist	Checkbox (✓)	Amount (Annual) yen
(1) You are not receiving large sums from family. *If you are a first-year student, enter the amount your family plans to send you. If you are in your second or later year, enter the full-year amount you were sent in the 2019 school year.
(2) You are not living in a supporter's residence OR you are living in a supporter's residence but you are not receiving support from family.
(3) Your part-time income accounts for a large percentage of funds for paying daily expenses and tuition. *If you are a first-year student, enter the part-time income you planned to receive. If you are in your second year or later, enter the part-time income you received in the 2019 school year. [Note] 'a large percentage' means 50 % or more in principle.
(4) Due to a loss of income for your family (parents) or other such reason, you do not expect to receive additional support from family.
(5) You have lost a significant amount (50% or more compared to the previous month) of part-time income due to the coronavirus (including compensation for absence from work through the employment adjustment subsidy).
(6) (NOT applicable for international students) You qualify for one or more of the following programs.	/
1) You are a Class I recipient under the New Higher Education Support System ("New System" below).
2) You are a Class II or III recipient under the New System AND a student eligible to simultaneously receive a Category I scholarship who has used or plans to use the entire scholarship.
3) You are an applicant to the New System or plan to use the New System AND you have used or plan to use your entire Category I scholarship.
4) You are not eligible for the New System AND you have used or plan to use your entire Category I scholarship.
5) You cannot use the New System or a Category I scholarship because you do not meet the criteria, BUT you plan to use a support system provided by the private sector or elsewhere for which you are eligible to apply.
(7) An international student or the like (including students at Japanese language schools) must fulfill the following criteria IN ADDITION TO experiencing economic hardship accompanying the novel coronavirus pandemic. 1) You are a student with excellent grades. Specifically, your average grades for the previous school must be 2.30 or higher. 2) Your monthly attendance is at least 80%. 3) You receive an average of no more than 90,000 yen in monthly remittances (not including funds for paying admission fees, test fees, etc.). 4) Your supporter in Japan has an annual income of less than 5 million yen.

I hereby swear that the above information is true and I agree that if the information in this application is false, then I shall return the funds.
